

Doculivery Online Document Management

Product Description

Doculivery, NatPay's online document management service, is an innovative, high-tech, high-touch alternative to outdated legacy storage and retrieval systems. Doculivery's robust design incorporates a unique set of adaptable modular components that can be customized to meet the needs of any organization.

Doculivery consolidates data into a unique web-based tool accessible from any Internet-ready location. Secure online pay stubs, W-2 and 1099 forms, invoices, and customer statements are created and delivered in less time and at far less expense than traditional paper models. Additional features, including online payments, automated fillable forms, and targeted search and reporting tools further optimize the user experience.

NatPay's Doculivery can be used as an online HR information solution that will have a positive impact on your profitability by automating all of your critical HR functions. Important employee data that includes: compensation, benefits, contract/work histories, performance reviews, training documentation, certifications, and security clearance statuses is stored in a central database that is available to HR, managers, and employees via the Internet. Access to employee information enables immediate responses to government, management, and employee requests for information and reports.
